What don't you like about Obama, Bill Clinton, Jimmy Carter, LBJ, FDR, etc.

Here is your chance to vent about the current and past Democratic presidents.

I despise Barry O'Dumbfuck for his arrogance and ignorance. The man couldn't run a Dairy Queen, let alone the USA. The people that worship this moron are truly stupid people.

Bill Clinton is a narcissistic scumbag that ruined more than a few women's lives. Monica Lewinsky was a sex toy to him, her life will never be normal thanks to this pervert. Kathleen Wiley, Juanita Broderick, Jennifer Flowers and a host of other women were abused and molested by this man. The fact that people don't boo him off the stage is a sorry statement on our society.

Jimmy Carter is an anti-semitic asshole and a fucking moron. His Presidency has been compared to James Buchanan's in levels of failure. Carter has been portrayed as being a far better man than he is by sympathetic liberals in the press.

LBJ used the death of Kennedy to past Civil Rights Legislation (a good thing) and the Great Society welfare state (a very bad thing). Personally, LBJ was reportedly a complete asshole.

JFK is a spoiled rich kid whose weakness led to the Cuban Missle Crisis. Had he not been assassinated, his Presidency would have been mediocre at best.

Truman dropped the big one and integrated the military. Both were the right thing to do.

FDR was a socialist and made the Great Depression worse. He did lead the nation through WWII, but his abuses of the Constitution have hurt our country immensely. FDR started Social Security, but his original law isn't what is breaking us now, it is the goodies adding by idiot politicians over the years that are killing us.
