We should take the time to highlight other local blogs. Like this blog:

Chris Stewart (building schools for a better Minneapolis): Statement regarding Burroughs Community School

And don't forget to see Chris Stewart Resign , too.

The blog quotes from a recent Twin Cities Daily Planet piece where Stewart actually says, "I'm probably not your board member and I'm OK with that".

Obviously, it's condensed... so you'll need to check the blog post for the full comment.
