Navy SEALs have secretly captured one of the most wanted terrorists in Iraq — the alleged mastermind of the murder and mutilation of four Blackwater USA security guards in Fallujah in 2004. And three of the SEALs who captured him are now facing criminal charges, sources told FoxNews.com.

The three, all members of the Navy's elite commando unit, have refused non-judicial punishment — called an admiral's mast — and have requested a trial by court-martial.

Ahmed Hashim Abed, whom the military code-named "Objective Amber," told investigators he was punched by his captors — and he had the bloody lip to prove it.

March 31, 2004: Iraqis chant anti-American slogans as the charred and mutilated bodies of U.S. contractors hang from a bridge over the Euphrates River in Fallujah, Iraq.

Now, instead of being lauded for bringing to justice a high-value target, three of the SEAL commandos, all enlisted, face assault charges and have retained lawyers.

What the fuck is going on with this administration. Who the hell does this president think he is, and yes it is the policy's that he has in place that are leading to this. I dare any one to try and tell me it is anything else but the orders of the chicken-in-chief to prosecute our solders for crap like this.

This president is an anti-war anti-America pile of crap over and over again he goes out of his way to apologize for what his twisted view of America the evil nation has done to the rest of the world.

Poor little bad mans lip got blooded gee if you think about it all he had to do was whack his face against the wall and make a boges claim of abuse. Does any one remember the manual we found in one of thous caves the one that teaches them to make false abuse claims. The other thing to think about. During a snatch and grab operation: for the team safety they do not have time to wrap the target up in cotton bunting to keep the piece of shit from getting bumped around to much to hurt our presidents sensibilities.

Whats next are they going to take away our solders bullets, and give them pillows to hit the terrorist with?

Anyone willing to bet that good ol Berry won't take the time to go vist our troops in the field this thanksgiving?

Last question for you all to think about. How far is Presedint Obama willing to drag this country down in to the dark pit of history? and will we be able to counter his destructive policys, or have we aleready gone to far down the road.
